HPO Presents The Toronto Brass Quintet at Supercrawl

Hamilton, Ontario – The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra announces that they will be presenting the Toronto Brass Quintet at the James Street North Supercrawl on Saturday, September 25th, 2010 at 2pm on the mainstage located on James Street North at York Street. This is a free, family-friendly performance.

The Toronto Brass Quintet will present a fun, interactive, family-oriented performance that will introduce listeners to the world of brass instruments and classical music. The Toronto Brass Quintet is made up of five of Ontario's most exciting and versatile brass players: Ted Clark, trumpet; Christa Lowry, trumpet; Olivia Brayley, horn; Megan Hodge, trombone; Jennifer Stephen, tuba.

As well as being a part of Supercrawl, this performance is part of Culture Days, which is a collaborative pan-Canadian movement to raise the awareness, accessibility, participation and engagement of all Canadians in the arts and cultural life of their communities. The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra was founded in 1949 with roots going back to 1884 as The Hamilton Orchestral Society and it grew to become one of Canada's major professional orchestras. Today the HPO is a leader in Hamilton's robust arts community where it provides professional orchestral services and music education programs to address the needs of the community. The combined musical talents of its artists continue to enrich the community and enhance the quality of life for its residents.
