HPO's Final Concert Part of Weekend of Events

Hamilton, Ontario – The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra presents its final concert of the 09.10 season, Miniatures, on Saturday, May 29th at 7:30pm at Central Presbyterian Church. The concert will be led by Music Director James Sommerville, and there will be complimentary coffee and desserts following.

Also the finale of the Elegance series, the program features chamber music by D'Indy, Schoenberg, Revueltas and Britten that ranges from quirky and jazzy to passionate and profound performed by small groups of musicians from the orchestra.

This final concert rounds out a weekend of events for the HPO, starting on Friday, May 28th with the Meet Us On Locke community open house at the Cheese Shoppe on Locke.

The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra was founded in 1949 with roots going back to 1884 as The Hamilton Orchestral Society and it grew to become one of Canada's major professional orchestras. Today the HPO is a leader in Hamilton's robust arts community where it provides professional orchestral services and music education programs to address the needs of the community. The combined musical talents of its artists continue to enrich the community and enhance the quality of life for its residents.
